SUMMARY:

Northwest Immigrant Rights Project (NWIRP) is seeking one full-time, temporary, Staff Attorney to join our Community Outreach Unit until June 30, 2026, starting as soon as possible. Applicants must be fluent in English and at least one other language, with Spanish, and Portuguese and French preferred.

As a temporary staff attorney, you'll join NWIRP's Community Outreach Unit and provide legal assistance through brief services to immigrant community members who have recently arrived in Washington State and are facing deportation proceedings. You will also offer direct representation, individual consultations, and community outreach and education to immigrant community members seeking immigration protections before U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) and in immigration courts. Additionally, the staff attorney may be assigned to work on other immigration matters, including cases involving individuals in immigration detention.

ABOUT NORTHWEST IMMIGRANT RIGHTS PROJECT:

Founded in 1984, Northwest Immigrant Rights Project (NWIRP) is a nationally-recognized legal services organization on the front lines of defending and advancing the rights of immigrants. With over 150 employees, NWIRP provides direct legal representation and assistance in immigration matters to thousands of people with low incomes who come from over 150 countries and speak over 60 different languages.

NWIRP challenges unjust policies through high-impact lawsuits and advocates for laws and policies that respect the rights of immigrants. NWIRP is also a trusted provider of immigration-related community education for immigrant communities and social service providers. NWIRP serves the community through four offices in Washington State (Granger, Seattle, Tacoma and Wenatchee), but the impact of our work is felt nationwide.

NWIRP's Community Outreach Unit is an organization-wide unit dedicated to providing accessible resources, education, and training through outreach events for community members, service providers, and partners across Washington State. In addition to outreach efforts, the unit offers brief services, workshops, and legal clinics to recently arrived immigrants facing deportation. These brief services include intakes and consultations, as well as assistance with submitting applications for various forms of immigration protection before USCIS and immigration court, such as asylum, temporary protected status, employment authorization, and changes of venue or address.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

All NWIRP staff attorneys are expected to:

- Provide direct representation to individuals in removal proceedings before the Immigration Court, on appeal to the Board of Immigration Appeals or before the federal courts, and before the Department of Homeland Security;

- Provide direct representation to persons submitting affirmative applications with USCIS and the Department of State;
- Conduct presentations, workshops, legal clinics, and intakes, by phone and in person;
